

THE CLEVELAND FOUNDATION

scholarships

ROBERT D. JOHNSON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS: APRIL 15

The Robert D. Johnson Memorial Scholarship is a $1,200 award that supports the college studies of members, or their children, of the Communications Workers of America (CWA) – District 4.

To be eligible for the scholarship, applicants must:

- Be a member of CWA – District 4, or have a parent who is member, with a minimum of 18 months tenure.
- Have a minimum 2.0 GPA.
- Demonstrate the potential to succeed in college based on the completed application.

All eligible individuals who have completed the application process will be included in a lottery drawing for three available awards per year.

Recipients must maintain full-time enrollment status and submit grade reports to the Cleveland Foundation for each relevant term. The Robert D. Johnson Memorial Scholarship is a one-time, non-renewable award.

For application instructions and further details, please visit:
www.ClevelandFoundation.org/Scholarships

If you have questions after visiting our website, please email:
TCFScholarships@clevefdn.org

